- 3.4 Any Deposit shall not be refunded by the Supplier if the Customer cancels the Contract.
- 3.5 The Supplier shall have no Liability to the Customer in relation to any Contract cancelled in accordance with this Clause.

4 CONSUMER RIGHTS TO END THE CONTRACT

- 4.1 This clause 4 shall only apply when the Customer enters into a Contract as a Consumer. The Customer's right to end the Contract will depend on what has been bought, whether there is anything wrong with it, how the Supplier is performing and when the Customer decides to end the Contract:
- 4.1.1 If what has been bought is faulty or misdescribed, the Customer may have a legal right to end the Contract (or to get the Hire Goods repaired or replaced or the Services re-performed or to get some or all of the charges back), see clause 14;

- 4.1.2 If the Customer wants to end the Contract because of something the Supplier has done or told the Customer it is going to do, see clause 4.2;
- 4.1.3 If the Customer has just changed its mind about the Hire Goods or Services, see clause 4.3. The Customer may be able to get a refund if it is within the Cooling-Off Period, but this may be subject to deductions and it will have to pay the costs of return of any Hire Goods.
- 4.2 If the Customer is ending a Contract for a reason set out at (a) to (e) below the Contract will end immediately and the Supplier will refund the Customer in full for any Hire Goods or Services which have not been provided. The reasons are:
- 4.2.1 the Supplier has told the Customer about an upcoming change to the Hire Goods, Services or these terms which it does not agree to;
- 4.2.2 the Supplier told the Customer about an error in the price or description of the Hire Goods or Services the Customer has ordered and it no longer wishes to proceed;
- 4.2.3 there is a risk that supply of the Hire Goods or Services may be significantly delayed because of events outside the Supplier's control;
- 4.2.4 the Supplier has suspended supply of the Hire Goods or Services for technical reasons, or notifies the Customer that the Supplier is going to suspend them for technical reasons, in each case for a period of more than 30 days or
- 4.2.5 the Customer has a legal right to end the Contract because of something the Supplier has done wrong.
- 4.3 Consumers have a right to change their mind pursuant to the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013. For most contracts concluded online the Customer has a legal right to change its mind within 14 days and receive a refund. These rights means that the Customer may give the Supplier notice that it wishes to cancel the Contract within 14 days of the date of a Contract for the supply of Services and/or Hire Goods ("Cooling Off Period").
- 4.4 The Customer does not have a right to change its mind in respect of the Services and/or the hire of the Hire Goods, once these have been completed, even if the Cooling Off Period is still running.
- 4.5 How long the Customer has to change its mind depends on what has been ordered and how it is delivered. If Hire Goods have been ordered and/or Services have been bought, the Customer has 14 days after the day the Supplier emails to confirm the order. However, once the Hire Period has ended or the Supplier has completed the Services the Customer cannot change its mind, even if the Cooling Off Period is still running. If the Customer cancels after the Supplier has supplied the Hire Goods or started the Services, the Customer must pay the Supplier for the Hire Period or the Services provided up until the time it notifies the Supplier that it has changed its mind.
- 4.6 Even if the Supplier is not at fault and the Customer does not have a right to change its mind (see clause 4.1), it can still end the Contract before it is completed, but may have to pay compensation. A Contract for the supply of the Hire Goods or Services is completed when Hire Period finishes or the Supplier has finished providing the Services and the Customer has paid for them. If the Customer wants to end a Contract before it is completed where the Supplier is not at fault and the Customer had paid for them. If the Customer wants to end a Contract before it is completed where the Supplier is not at fault and the Customer has not changed its mind, it can just contact the Supplier. The Contract will end immediately and the Supplier will refund any sums paid for the unused Hire Period or Services not provided but may deduct from that refund (or, if the Customer has not made an advance payment, charge it) reasonable compensation for the net costs the Supplier will incur as a result of ending the Contract, which the Supplier estimates to be as set out in clause 3.2.

5 PAYMENT

- 5.1 The amount of any Deposit, Rental and/or charges for any Services shall be as quoted to the Customer or otherwise as shown in the Supplier's current price list from time to time. Where a Deposit is required for the Hire Goods it must be paid in advance of the Customer hiring the Hire Goods. The Supplier may also require an initial payment on account of the Rental in advance of the Customer hiring the Hire Goods.
- 5.2 The Customer shall pay the Rental, charges for any Services, monies for any Products and/or any other sums payable under the Contract to the Supplier at the time and in the manner agreed. If any Hire Goods are returned after the date stated in the Contract for return, the Customer shall pay to the Supplier an additional sum equal to the Rental for such late period plus an amount equal to [25%] to reflect the additional costs, charges and disruption to other customers in respect of such late return.

- 5.3 The Supplier's prices are, unless otherwise stated, exclusive of any applicable VAT for which the Customer shall additionally be liable. Unless otherwise stated the Customer shall pay all Expenses incurred by the Supplier in delivery of any Hire Goods, delivery of any Products and/or performance of any Services.
- 5.4 Payment by the Customer on time under the Contract is an essential condition of the Contract. Payment shall not be deemed to be made until the Supplier has received either cash or cleared funds in respect of the full amount outstanding.
- 5.5 *If the Customer fails to make any payment in full on the due date the Supplier may charge the Customer interest (both before and after judgment/decreed) on the amount unpaid at the rate implied by law under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 (where applicable) or at the rate of 4% above the base rate from time to time of the Supplier's bank whichever is higher.
- 5.6 Any monies received by the Supplier from the Customer may be applied by the Supplier at its option against any additional administrative costs and interest charged prior to application against any principal sums due from the Customer against which it may be applied in any order.
- 5.7 *The Customer shall pay all sums due to the Supplier under this Contract without any set-off, deduction, counterclaim and/or any other withholding of monies.
- 5.8 The Supplier may set a reasonable credit limit for the Customer. The Supplier reserves the right to terminate or suspend the Contract for hire of the Hire Goods and/or the provision of Services if allowing it to continue would result in the Customer exceeding its credit limit or the credit limit is already exceeded.

- 6.6 The Customer shall either:
- 6.6.1 pay the Supplier to assume the risks set out in Clause 6.1 in respect of the Hire Goods at an additional cost of 12.5% of the gross Rental ("Additional Cost"). For the purpose of this Clause 6.6.1, gross Rental means the rental payable by the Customer as provided in the Supplier's price list from time to time without any discounts or special rates (if any) offered to that Customer ; or
- 6.6.2 insure the Hire Goods on such reasonable terms and for such reasonable risks as the Supplier may specify and provide the Supplier with evidence of such insurance. The proceeds of any such insurance shall be held by the Customer in trust for the Supplier and be paid to the Supplier on demand. The Customer must not compromise any claim in respect of the Hire Goods and/or any associated insurance without the Supplier's written consent.
- 6.7 If the Supplier agrees to assume risks in the Hire Goods in accordance with Clause 6.6.1, such risks shall only include loss of and/or damage to the Hire Goods resulting from accidental damage, third party theft following forced entry to the Customer's premises (supported by a police incident number) and/or fair wear and tear and shall be subject to Clauses 6.8, 10, 12 and 13. For the avoidance of any doubt, such risk shall not include deliberate damage or theft.

- 6.8 If the Supplier agrees to assume risks in the Hire Goods in accordance with Clause 6.6.1, in the event of a claim by the Customer in respect of a risk specified in Clause 6.7, the Customer shall pay to the Supplier the applicable Customer contribution set out below under the heading "Customer contribution."

7 DELIVERY, COLLECTION AND SERVICES

- 7.1 It is the responsibility of the Customer to collect the Hire Goods from the Supplier and return them to the Supplier at the end of the Hire Period. - 7.4 Where the Supplier provides Services, the persons performing the Services are servants of the Customer and once the Customer instructs such person they are under the direction and control of the Customer. The Customer shall be solely responsible for any instruction, guidance and/or advice given by the Customer to any such person and for any damage which occurs as a result of such persons following the Customer's instructions, guidance and/or advice except to the extent that the persons performing the Services are negligent.

- 4.1 This clause 4 shall only apply when the Customer enters into a Contract as a Consumer. The Customer's right to end the Contract will depend on what has been bought, whether there is anything wrong with it, how the Supplier is performing and when the Customer decides to end the Contract:
- 4.1.1 If what has been bought is faulty or misdescribed, the Customer may have a legal right to end the Contract (or to get the Products repaired or replaced or to get some or all of the charges back), see clause 10;
- 4.1.2 If the Customer wants to end the Contract because of something the Supplier has done or told the Customer it is going to do, see clause 4.2;
- 4.1.3 If the Customer has just changed its mind about the Product, see clause 4.3. The Customer may be able to get a refund if it is within the Cooling-Off Period, but this may be subject to deductions and it will have to pay the costs of return of any Products.
- 4.2 If the Customer is ending a Contract for a reason set out at (a) to (e) below the Contract will end immediately and the Supplier will refund the Customer in full for any Products which have not been provided. The reasons are:
- 4.2.1 the Supplier has told the Customer about an upcoming change to the Products or these terms which it does not agree to;
- 4.2.2 the Supplier told the Customer about an error in the price or description of the Products the Customer has ordered and it no longer wishes to proceed;

- 4.2.5 the Customer has a legal right to end the Contract because of something the Supplier has done wrong.
- 4.3 Consumers have a right to change their mind pursuant to the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013. For most Products bought online the Customer has a legal right to change its mind within 14 days and receive a refund. These rights means that the Customer may give the Supplier notice that it wishes to cancel the Contract within 14 days of the date of delivery of the Products ("Cooling Off Period").
- 4.4 The Customer does not have a right to change its mind in respect of:
- 4.4.1 sealed audio or sealed video recordings once these Products are unsealed after receipt; and
- 4.4.2 any Products which become mixed inseparable with other items after their delivery.
- 4.5 How long the Customer has to change its mind depends on what has been ordered and how it is delivered. In the case of the Products it has 14 days after the day it receives the Products, unless:
- 4.5.1 the Products are split into several deliveries over different days, in which case it has until 14 days after the day it receives the last delivery to change its mind about the Products.
- 4.5.2 the Products are for regular delivery over a set period in which case it has until 14 days after the day it receives the first delivery of the Products.
- 4.6 Even if the Supplier is not at fault and the Customer does not have a right to change its mind (see clause 4.1), it can still end the Contract before it is completed, but may have to pay compensation. A Contract for the Products is completed when the Products are delivered and paid for. If the Customer wants to end a Contract before it is completed where the Supplier is not at fault and the Customer has not changed its mind, just contact the Supplier. The Contract will end immediately and the Supplier will refund any sums paid for the Products not provided but we may deduct from that refund (or, if you have not made an advance payment, charge you) reasonable compensation for the net costs we will incur as a result of your ending the Contract which the Supplier estimates to be as set out in clause 3.2.
